

20. A gratuity under Bye-law 19 shall be at the rate of one-twelfth of the average yearly pay received by an officer during his last four years of service for each completed year of unbroken service immediately prior to his retirement or removal from office :

Provided that no officer shall be entitled to receive any gratuity unless he shall have served for an unbroken period of at least five years immediately preceding his retirement or removal from office.

21. To enable the Council to grant gratuities and pensions under these Bye-laws a Fund shall be established, to be called the "Gratuities and Pension Fund," which shall consist of all moneys paid by the Corporation into this Fund as hereinafter provided.

22. The Corporation shall, subject to the provisions of these Bye-laws, administer the Gratuities and Pension Fund and shall keep a separate account in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council with the approval of the Commissioner, of all moneys paid into and out of the said Gratuities and Pension Fund.

23. The Corporation shall in every year charge on and pay out of the Revenues of the Corporation a sum of £300 into the Gratuities and Pension Fund :

Provided that the Council may with the sanction of the Commissioner from time to time increase, reduce or suspend the above payment as circumstances may require.

24. Bye-laws 195 and 196 of the Nicosia Municipal (Principal and Amended) Bye-laws, 1938, relating to Gratuities, are hereby revoked without prejudice to anything done thereunder.

The above Bye-laws have been approved by His Excellency the Governor. (M.P. 1424/12/5.)
