Amendment of regulation 66.

1. These regulations may be cited as the Defence (Amendment No. 8) Regulations, 1942, and shall be read as one with the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 7) 1942, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Regulations"), and the principal Regulations and these regulations may together be cited as the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 8) 1942.

2. Regulation 66 of the principal Regulations is hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after paragraph (4) of the following paragraph :—

"Power to direct the production of cattle for examination.

(4A)—(i) The Governor, if it appears to him to be necessary or expedient so to do, may, prior to the making of any order under this regulation in relation to the requisition of any cattle, direct the owner of any cattle to produce or cause to be produced such cattle, for examination, to such authority or person as may be specified in the direction, at such place and time as may be specified therein.

(ii) There shall be paid to any person producing or causing to be produced any cattle in accordance with any direction issued under sub-paragraph (i) of this paragraph—

(a) such sum by way of compensation as such person proves to the satisfaction of the authority or person specified in the direction to have been reasonably incurred in connection with the production of any cattle, and

(b) a reasonable amount to cover loss of time, if any.

(iii) In this paragraph "cattle" means bulls, cows, oxen, heifers, steers, calves, camels, horses, mules, asses, sheep, goats and swine, and the young of the same."

Made at Nicosia, this 24th day of September, 1942.
