

No. 38. THE DEFENCE REGULATIONS, 1940 TO (No. 1) 1942.

ORDER MADE BY THE COMPETENT AUTHORITY UNDER REGULATION 61.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of my appointment by the Governor as the Competent Authority for the purposes of regulation 61 of the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 1) 1942, I hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Defence (Regulation of Sale Prices) (Imported Articles) Amendment Order, 1942, and shall be read as one with the Defence (Regulation of Sale Prices) (Imported Articles) Orders, 1941, (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") and the principal Order and this Order may together be cited as the Defence (Regulation of Sale Prices) (Imported Articles) Orders, 1941 to 1942.

2. The principal Order is hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after clause 7 of the following clause:—

"7A. Whenever any imported article before it is used or sold is made up, modified, altered or repaired, in every such case the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say—

- (a) the person who sells any such article shall supply the purchaser with a receipt showing separately the price charged in respect of such article apart from any making up, modification, alteration or repair and the cost charged in respect of any such making up, modification, alteration or repair;
- (b) the price charged in respect of such article apart from any making up, modification, alteration or repair shall not exceed the maximum price at which such article may otherwise be sold or disposed of under the provisions of this Order;
- (c) the amount charged in respect of any making up, modification, alteration or repair shall not exceed the actual cost incurred in connection therewith including reasonable charges for overhead expenses and for labour."

3. Clause 10 of the principal Order is hereby repealed and the following clause substituted therefor:—

"10.—(1) Every person who exposes for sale, or holds a stock of, any imported articles shall exhibit and keep exhibited at a conspicuous place on his premises a list showing the maximum price at which each such article is offered for sale (in this clause referred to as 'the list').

(2) The list shall—

- (a) be typewritten or legibly written in ink; and
- (b) shall bear the date on which it is made; and
- (c) shall give a sufficiently detailed description of each article so as to enable a prospective purchaser to identify the article purchased with the article described in the list; and
- (d) shall be signed at the end thereof by the owner of the imported articles:

Provided that if the list consists of more than one sheet, each sheet shall be signed by such owner.

(3) Every alteration or erasure made in any list shall be initialled by the owner of the imported articles who shall also record thereon the date on which the alteration or erasure was made.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Order contained but without prejudice to the operation of clauses 4, 5, 6 and 7 of this Order, no person shall—

- (a) sell or purchase, or
- (b) offer for sale or attempt to sell or purchase,
- (c) either directly or indirectly make any arrangement for the sale or purchase of, any imported article in excess of the maximum price shown in the list exhibited by such person.

(5) The maximum price shown in a list at which each article is offered for sale shall not exceed the maximum price at which such article may otherwise be sold or disposed of under the provisions of this Order."

4. The principal Order is hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after clause 14 of the following clause:—

"14A. Every person who carries on business in respect of any imported article to which this Order applies who has in his possession or under his control in any part of the Colony any such articles, shall keep on his premises in which he usually carries on business a reasonable stock of such articles to meet the reasonable demands of the public or of prospective purchasers."
