No. 244. THE HOTELS LAWS, 1935 TO 1943.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER SECTION 12.

C. C. WOOLLEY,
Governor.

I, the Governor in Council, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 12 of the Hotels Laws, 1935 to 1943, and of every other power thereunto enabling, do hereby make the following regulations:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Hotels (Conditions of Service) Regulations, 1946.

2. In these regulations unless the context otherwise requires—

"hours of leisure" means a period during which a servant is free to leave the hotel without performing any work for his employer and, if he chooses and is permitted to remain on the premises, will not be required to attend upon any guest or perform any work connected with the hotel;

"hours of sleep" means a consecutive period during which the servant shall not be interrupted except in the case of some unexpected emergency such as illness or unforeseen arrival of guests, but not waiting up for guests who come in late or getting up to call guests who wish to rise unusually early;

*A.M. 5.2.47.51,

“hours of duty” means any period during which a servant is required to perform work in and about a hotel or on behalf of the hotel-keeper, including any period during which, though not actually working, he is required to hold himself at the disposal of guests or the hotel-keeper;

“servant” means any person employed in any capacity in connection with the business of a hotel and includes an employee in any restaurant or kitchen under the same management or in the same premises but shall not include the manager;

“service charge” means any addition to guests’ bills in lieu of gratuity or as a charge for service.

3. No hotel-keeper shall employ a servant in any capacity whatsoever for a longer period than fifty-eight hours, excluding meal times, in any one week or nine hours in any one day or at other hours than those set out in the table of working hours required to be kept exhibited in accordance with the provisions of regulation 7 (1) (b):

Provided that in case of sickness of a servant one or more of the other servants may carry out his duties for a period not exceeding one week even if such servant or servants will on this account work more than the prescribed hours:

Provided also that the Hotels Board, if satisfied that conditions of work are so light as to justify it, may grant a licence to any hotel-keeper to employ a servant for more than the above hours on such terms and conditions as may be stated in the licence:

Provided also that a servant who has not attained the age of sixteen years shall not be employed for a longer period than forty-eight hours, excluding meal times, in any one week.

4. On at least one day in each week a servant shall have a half-holiday after 2.30 p.m. and shall not, during that half-holiday, be employed in any capacity.

5. In every period of twenty-four hours every servant shall be entitled to eight hours of sleep.

6. In every four weeks of service every servant shall have one whole day’s holiday.

If the hotel-keeper and the servant agree in writing these holidays may be accumulated and taken at intervals of not more than one calendar year.

7.—(1) Every hotel-keeper shall keep exhibited in a place in his hotel, to which all servants have regular access, the following:—

(a) a list of the servants employed therein;

(b) a table showing the hours of duty, sleep and leisure of each servant;

(c) a notice showing the day appointed for the weekly half-holiday prescribed by regulation 4 and the four-weekly whole holiday prescribed by regulation 6.

(2) The list of servants, the table of hours of duty, sleep and leisure and the notice for the weekly half-holiday shall not be changed at less than forty-eight hours’ notice to the servant concerned, except in the event of illness or departure of a servant without notice. Every hotel-keeper shall send a copy of such list, table and notice and of any alterations to them to the Hotels Board within twenty-four hours of posting it.

8. Subject to the provisions of regulation 9 a service charge may be charged at the rate of 10% on bills for meals, boarding terms or accommodation, on laundry carried out by the hotel staff, and on drinks served together with a meal in the dining room. No percentage shall be charged for residents or non-residents for drinks served outside the dining room.

9.—(1) No hotel-keeper shall make any addition to his bills as a service charge or otherwise unless he has adopted a scheme approved by the Hotels Board for the distribution of money so received.

(2) Such approval shall be endorsed by the Hotels Board on a copy of the approved scheme and may be revoked at any time by giving the hotel-keeper notice in writing.

10. Every hotel-keeper who applies the 10% service charge shall issue numbered counterfoil receipts for any payments he receives.

11.—(1) The Hotels Board or any member thereof, any Labour Inspector and any police officer not below the rank of sergeant may at all reasonable hours enter, inspect and examine any hotel and every part thereof to ascertain whether the provisions of these regulations are being complied with.

(2) Every hotel-keeper, his agents and servants shall furnish such facilities, books or records as may be required by the Hotels Board or any member thereof, any Labour Inspector or any police officer for the purpose of any such inspection, enquiry or examination.

(3) If any person wilfully delays or obstructs the Hotels Board or any member thereof, or any Labour Inspector or any police officer in the exercise of the powers conferred by this regulation, such person shall be guilty of an offence against these regulations and shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds.

12. If any hotel-keeper contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of these regulations he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds.

13. The definitions of "hours of leisure", "hours of sleep", "hours of duty", "servant" and "service charge" in regulation 1A, and regulations 8B, 8C, 9A, 9B, 9C, 9D and 9E, of the Hotels Regulations, 1935 to 1946, are hereby revoked.
