AM. S.L. 1946, THE DEFENCE REGULATIONS, 1940 TO (No. 4) 1945.

28.3.46, ORDER MADE BY A COMPETENT AUTHORITY UNDER REGULATION 61.

p. 119, In exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of my appointment REPL. S.L. 1946, by the Governor as Competent Authority for the purposes of regulation 61 of the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 4) 1945, I hereby order as follows:—

17.2.49, p. 102, 1. This Order may be cited as the Defence (Bakeries and Bread Control) Order, 1945.

2. In this Order—

AM. S.L. 1946, “bakery” means any building, room or place used for or con-28.3.46, p. 119 nected with the preparation, making or baking of bread for sale whether by retail or wholesale;

“bread” means household bread of any size or shape or rolls of any size or shape and includes what are commonly known as koullouria, paximadia, franzola, cakes and biscuits;

“registered baker” means any person registered as a baker under this Order and includes any person registered or deemed to be a registered baker under the Defence (Bakery and Bread) Orders, 1942 to (No. 3) 1942, or under the Defence (Control of Bakeries and Bread) Orders, 1942 to (No. 2) 1945;

“wheat and barley flour” means the ground products of mixed wheat and barley in the proportion of 85% wheat and 15% barley, with not more than 15% and not less than 12% of the bran having been extracted therefrom and free from any other cereals, foreign matter or added bran.

3. No person shall keep or work a bakery unless such person is a registered baker.

AM. S.L. 1947, 4. Any person desiring to be registered under this Order as a registered 30.10.47, baker shall complete and deliver to the Commissioner of his district
p. 378, an application specifying the place at which the bakery which he intends to keep or work is situated, and if his application is granted such person shall be registered as a registered baker and thereupon the Commissioner of the district shall grant to such person a certificate of registration.

5. No person shall, save under the written permit of the Commissioner—
(a) prepare, make or bake bread for sale whether by retail or wholesale, except at the bakery of a registered baker;

(b) prepare, make or bake bread for sale other than from wheat and barley flour;

(c) sell, offer for sale or expose for sale any bread, except bread prepared, made or baked from wheat and barley flour.

AM. S.L. 1946, 6.—(1) No person shall, save under the written permit of the Com-28.3.46, missioner, have in his possession or under his control any flour other than
p. 120, wheat and barley flour.

(2) No registered baker shall, save under the written permit of the Commissioner, keep, or allow or suffer to be kept in his bakery any flour other than wheat and barley flour.

AM. S.L. 1947, 7. Any permit issued under the provisions of clause 5 or 6 of this Order 30.10.47, p. 378 may contain such terms and conditions as the Commissioner issuing the same may deem fit to impose.

AM. S.L. 1946, 8. Every registered baker shall keep in his bakery a book in which he shall enter or cause to be entered at the time hereinafter specified the following particulars:—

28.3.46, p. 120. (a) the actual amount of mixed wheat and barley received with reference to the relative invoice numbers as soon as such wheat and barley is received;

- (b) the actual amount of flour produced from the mixed wheat and barley received by him as in paragraph (a) hereof ;
- (c) at the end of each day the daily quantity of sifted flour used for the preparation of bread ;
- (d) at the end of each day the daily quantity of bran extracted from the flour produced from the sifting as in paragraph (c) hereof ;
- (e) at the end of each day the number of loaves of bread prepared, made or baked in his bakery ; and
- (f) at the end of each month the stock in hand of mixed wheat and barley, wheat and barley flour, sifted flour and bran.

9.—(1) No person shall—

- (a) sell or purchase, or
- (b) offer for sale or offer or attempt to sell or purchase, or
- (c) either directly or indirectly make any arrangement for the sale or purchase of, any bread in any village in the Colony except in loaves weighing—

- (i) one-half oke (200 drams), or
- (ii) one oke (400 drams).

(2) The provisions of this clause shall not apply to what are commonly known as koullouria, paximadia, cakes or biscuits.

10. Every registered baker shall permit such person as I, or the Commissioner of the district in which his bakery is situated, may authorize in writing in that behalf, to enter upon his bakery and make—

- (a) such enquiries or inspection therein ; and
- (b) such inspection of any book kept under clause 8 of this Order, as may be necessary for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Order have been or are being complied with.

11. At any time during the continuance of this Order, I may, by notification published in the Gazette, direct that bakeries in any town or village specified in the notification shall be closed on such days as may be specified in such notification or that in such towns or villages as may be specified in such notification no bread shall be prepared, made or baked on such days as may be specified therein.

12. Any bread—

- (a) prepared, made or baked in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order or of any term or condition of any permit issued under this Order or of any notification published under clause 11 of this Order ; or
- (b) sold, offered for sale or exposed for sale in contravention of any of the provisions of this Order or of any term or condition of any permit issued under this Order or of any notification published under clause 11 of this Order, may be seized by such person as I, or the Commissioner of the district in which such bread is found, may authorize in writing in that behalf, and may be disposed of in such manner as I, or the said Commissioner, as the case may be, may direct, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken for any such contravention.

13. Any person who—

- (a) acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any of the provisions of this Order ; or
- (b) makes in any book kept under clause 8 of this Order any entry which is false in any material particular ; or
- (c) fails to comply with any term or condition contained in any permit issued under this Order ; or

(d) knowingly misleads or otherwise interferes with or impedes any person exercising any powers or performing any duties under the provisions of this Order, is liable to the penalties prescribed in the Defence Regulations, 1940 to (No. 4) 1945.
