2. The following regulations shall be inserted in the principal Regulations as regulations 38, 60, 62 and 91A. :—

"Entering and leaving the Colony. 38. The Governor may make provision by order for securing that, subject to any exemptions for which provision may be made by the order,—

- (a) no person shall, on coming by sea or by air from a place outside the Colony, disembark in the Colony from any vessel or aircraft elsewhere than at a place specified in the order ;
- (b) no person shall, for the purpose of proceeding by sea or by air to a destination outside the Colony, embark in the Colony on any vessel or aircraft elsewhere than at a place so specified ;
- (c) no person shall proceed from the Colony to a destination outside it, except under the authority of a written permit granted by such authority or person as may be specified in the order.

Power to stop and search vehicles.

60.—(1) The person driving, or in control of, any road vehicle in motion shall stop the vehicle on being required so to do by any police constable in uniform or by any member of His Majesty's Forces being in uniform and on duty.

(2) If—

- (a) as respects any road vehicle being on a public highway or in a place to which the public have access, or
- (b) upon the overtaking of a road vehicle on any occasion on which the person driving, or in control of, the vehicle has been lawfully required to stop it but has failed to do so, any police constable or member of His Majesty's Forces has reasonable ground for suspecting that there is to be found in the vehicle evidence of the commission of a war offence, he may search the vehicle and may seize any article found therein which he has reasonable ground for believing to be evidence of the commission of such an offence.

(3) In this regulation the expression 'road vehicle' means any vehicle designed or adapted for use on roads.

Power to do work on land

62.—(1) Any member of His Majesty's Forces acting in the course of his duty as such, and any person authorized by the Competent Authority to act under this regulation, may, for any purpose connected with the securing of the public safety or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, do any work on any land or place anything in, on or over any land.

(2) The Competent Authority, if it appears to that authority to be necessary or expedient so to do in the interests of public safety, or the maintenance of supplies and services essential to the life of the community, may by order provide for prohibiting or restricting the doing on any particular land of any such work as may be specified in the order.

(3) No person (other than a servant of His Majesty or police constable acting in the course of his duty as such) shall, except with permission granted by or on behalf of the Competent Authority, remove, alter or tamper with any work done, or thing placed, in, on or over any land in pursuance of this regulation.

(4) For the purpose of this regulation, the doing of work shall, in relation to any land, be deemed to include the demolition, pulling down, destruction or rendering useless of anything placed in, on or over that land, the maintenance of any work or thing in, on or over the land, and the removal from the land of anything so placed, demolished or pulled down in pursuance of this regulation.

Use of force in entering premises.

91A. Where, by virtue of any of these regulations, a person has any power to enter premises, he may use such force as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of exercising that power."

Made at Nicosia, this 18th day of February, 1946.
