THE SUPPLIES AND SERVICES (TRANSITIONAL POWERS)
ACT, 1945:

ORDER MADE BY THE ACTING GOVERNOR.

R. E. TURNBULL,
Acting Governor.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945, as extended to the Colony by the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) (Colonies, etc.) Order in Council, 1946, I, the Acting Governor, do hereby order as follows:—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Emergency Powers (Cyprus Defence) (Finance) Amendment Regulations, 1949, and shall be read as one with the Emergency Powers (Cyprus Defence) (Finance) Regulations, 1940 to (No. 2) 1941, mentioned in item 1 of the Second Schedule to the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) (Cyprus) Order, 1946, which have effect by virtue of the Act aforementioned (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Regulations"), and the principal Regulations and these regulations may together be cited as the Emergency Powers (Cyprus Defence) (Finance) Regulations, 1940 to 1949.

2. Regulation 2 of the principal Regulations shall be varied by the deletion therefrom of the definition of "British bank."

3. Paragraph (2) of regulation 4 of the principal Regulations shall be varied so as to read and to have effect as follows:—

"(2) In this regulation the expression "authorized dealer" means, in relation to gold or any foreign currency, a person for the time being authorized by or on behalf of the Governor to act for the purposes of this regulation as an authorized dealer in relation to gold, or, as the case may be, that foreign currency."

4. Sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of regulation 5 of the principal Regulations shall be varied to read and to have effect as follows:—

"(a) take or send out of the Colony any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency, or"

5. Paragraph (3) of regulation 5 of the principal Regulations shall be varied to read and to have effect as follows:—

"(3) Any person who on any occasion is about to leave the Colony (which person is hereafter in this paragraph referred to as "the traveller") shall, if requested so to do by the appropriate officer,—

(a) declare whether or not he has with him any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency;

(b) produce any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency which he has with him;

and the appropriate officer and any person acting under his directions may search the traveller and examine or search any article which the traveller has with him, for the purpose of ascertaining whether he has with him any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency, and may seize any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency produced or found upon such examination or search unless either—

- (i) the appropriate officer is satisfied that the traveller is, in respect of all sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency which he has with him on the said occasion, exempt from the restriction imposed by sub-paragraph (a) of paragraph (1) of this regulation ; or
- (ii) the traveller produces to the appropriate officer a single certificate granted by or on behalf of the Governor showing, with respect to all sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency which he has with him on the said occasion, that the taking out by him of the sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency does not involve a contravention of that sub-paragraph :

Provided that no female shall be searched in pursuance of this paragraph except by a female."

6. Paragraph (5) of regulation 5 of the principal Regulations shall be varied to read and to have effect as follows :—

"(5)—(a) As respects any postal packet posted in, or goods consigned from, the Colony to a destination which is not in the Colony, the appropriate officer and any person acting under his directions may, upon reasonable suspicion, open, examine or search such packets or goods for the purpose of ascertaining whether there are being sent therewith any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency and may seize any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency found upon such opening, examination or search, unless there appears to the appropriate officer to have been granted by or on behalf of the Governor a certificate which shows that the sending as aforesaid of the sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency does not involve a contravention of paragraph (1) of this regulation :

Provided that, if upon any such opening, examination or search any such postal packet or goods are found not to contain any sterling, currency notes, postal orders, gold, securities, stamps for philatelic purposes or foreign currency in contravention of paragraph (1) of this regulation, such packet or goods shall be immediately resealed or re-packed and forwarded for transmission to their destination ;

(b) in this paragraph "postal packet" means a letter, newspaper, book packet, pattern or sample packet, circular, legal and commercial document, packet of photographs, and every packet or article which is not for the time being prohibited from being sent by the post."

Made at Nicosia, this 12th day of January, 1949.
