

No. 430. THE BOMBARDMENT RANGE AREAS LAW, 1948.

NOTICE UNDER SECTION 2.

A. B. WRIGHT,
Governor.

Whereas by a notice published under Notification No. 295 in Supplement No. 3 to the Gazette of 11th August, 1949 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal notice") certain areas set out in the Schedule thereto were declared under section 2 of the Bombardment Range Areas Law, 1948, as Bombardment Range Areas for the purposes of the aforesaid Law;

And whereas in line 5 of the Akamas Bombardment Range Area in the aforesaid Schedule a mistake occurred which must be corrected:

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in me by section 2 of the Bombardment Range Areas Law, 1948, I, the Governor, do hereby declare that the description of the Akamas Bombardment Range Area, for the purposes of the aforesaid Law, in the Schedule to the principal notice be amended to read and have effect as if for the words "940 feet" in line 5 thereof the words "9,400 feet" were substituted.

Nicosia, the 7th day of November, 1949.

(M.P. 708/48.)

No. 431. THE TRADE UNIONS (RULES OF COURT), 1949.

The Chief Justice and the Puisne Judges in exercise of the powers vested in the Supreme Court by sections 16 (2), 17 (3) and 27 (6) of the Trade Unions Laws, 1949, hereby make the following rules:—

1. These rules may be cited as the Trade Unions (Rules of Court), 1949.
2. All appeals to the Supreme Court under sections 16 (1), 17 (3) and 27 (6) of the Trade Unions Laws, 1949, shall be commenced by originating summons in the form prescribed in Appendix A to these rules (or if inapplicable in such other concise form as the nature of the case may require) within one month from the date of publication of these rules, or within one month of the decision of the Registrar of Trade Unions, or within such further time as the Court shall allow: Provided always, that any application to the Court for an extension of time within which any such appeal may be commenced shall be made within one month of the decision of the Registrar of Trade Unions.
3. The Rules of Court for the time being in force relating to civil actions shall (except if and so far as otherwise provided by these rules) apply to all proceedings on any such appeal.
4. The originating summons shall be headed with a reference to the Trade Unions Laws, 1949, and also with a reference to the decision of the Registrar of Trade Unions which is appealed against, and shall contain or have scheduled or annexed thereto a concise statement of the grounds of the appeal, and no grounds other than those comprised in such statement shall (except with the leave of the Court and on such terms, if any, as the Court shall think just) be allowed to be taken by the appellant at the hearing of the summons.
5. The originating summons shall be served upon the Registrar of Trade Unions who shall be the respondent to the summons.
