THE SUPPLIES AND SERVICES (TRANSITIONAL POWERS)
(CYPRUS) ORDER, 1946.

ORDER MADE BY A COMPETENT AUTHORITY UNDER DEFENCE
REGULATION 61.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by virtue of my appointment by the Governor as Competent Authority for the purposes of Defence Regulation 61 as set out in the First Schedule to the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) (Cyprus) Order, 1946, I hereby order as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Supplies and Services (Wheat Flour Milling) Order, 1949.

2. In this Order—

“wheat flour” means the ground product of wheat with no more than 10% of the bran having been extracted therefrom and free from any other cereals, foreign matter or added bran.

3. Save under my written permit containing such terms and conditions as may be specified therein, no wheat shall be ground at any mill except for production of wheat flour.

4. Save under my written permit containing such terms and conditions as may be specified therein, no miller shall—

(a) sift, or permit or suffer to be sifted, in his mill any ground product of wheat;

(b) add, or permit or suffer to be added, in his mill any bran or other material to wheat flour;

(c) use or work in his mill for the grinding of wheat any roller milling machine.

5. Every miller shall keep in his mill a book in which he shall enter or cause to be entered at the end of each day the particulars set out in the Schedule to this Order.

6. Every miller shall permit such person as I may authorize in writing in that behalf, to enter upon his mill and make—

(a) such enquiries or inspection therein; and

(b) such inspection of any book kept under clause 5 of this Order, as may be necessary for the purposes of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Order have been or are being complied with.

7. Any flour produced from wheat in contravention of the provisions of this Order or of any term or condition of any permit issued under this Order may be seized by such person as I may authorize in writing in that behalf and may be disposed of in such manner as I may direct, without prejudice to any proceedings which may be taken for any such contravention.

8. Any person who—

(a) acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any of the provisions of this Order; or

(b) makes in any book kept under clause 5 of this Order any entry which is false in any material particular; or

(c) acts in contravention of, or fails to comply with, any term or condition contained in any permit issued under this Order; or

(d) knowingly misleads or otherwise interferes with or impedes any person exercising any powers or performing any duties under the provisions of this Order, is liable to the penalties prescribed in the Defence Regulations as set out in the First Schedule to the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) (Cyprus) Order, 1946.

Gazette: 9. The Defence (Flour Milling) Order, 1946, is hereby repealed, Suppl. No. 3: without prejudice to anything done or left undone thereunder.
