VEHICLES AND TRAFFIC.

Chapter 1.—Parking places and stands for vehicles.

195. The Council may, with the prior concurrence of the Commissioner of Police, from time to time fix places for the parking of vehicles specifying the kind and number of vehicles which may be parked in any particular place, and shall keep in every such parking place adequate posters indicating the kind and number of vehicles which may be parked thereon.

196. No vehicle shall stand at any spot in any street other than at a parking place fixed by the Council for parking of vehicles of its kind :

Provided that any vehicle may stop in a street only for the time reasonably required for mounting or alighting passengers, for loading or unloading of goods or for the sale of goods to a customer and at a spot not obstructing the use of the street by other vehicles or the public.

197. No omnibus shall stop at any spot in any street for mounting or alighting passengers other than at a stand fixed by the Council for the purpose.

198. The Council shall keep at every spot so fixed an adequate poster indicating that such spot is a stand for omnibuses.”

5. The principal Bye-laws are hereby amended by the insertion therein, immediately after bye-law 203, of the following chapter and bye-law :—

“Chapter 3.—Regulation of Traffic.

203A.—(1) The Council may, with the prior concurrence of the Police, from time to time—

(a) declare any street or part thereof as a street for one way traffic and indicate the one way direction of the traffic in such street ;

(b) prohibit entirely traffic in any street ;

(c) restrict traffic in any street within certain hours.

(2) Whenever a street is declared as a street for one way traffic or whenever traffic in any street is entirely prohibited or is restricted only within certain hours, the Council shall place conspicuous signals in or near such street and at reasonable height from the ground at all suitable places in such street indicating the direction, prohibition or restriction of the traffic in such street, as the case may be.

(3) No person shall take, lead, ride or drive any animal or vehicle contrary to the direction, prohibition or restriction declared or made under this bye-law in respect of such street :

Provided that nothing in this bye-law contained shall apply to—

- (a) the pushing of bicycles by pedestrians or of wheel-barrows by porters in any such street ;
 - (b) the taking, leading, riding or driving of any animal or vehicle in any street, in respect of which such prohibition or restriction has been made, for the purpose of mounting or alighting passengers or for loading or unloading goods at or from any premises situated in any part of such street to which such prohibition or restriction applies.
- (4) No person shall erect or display any sign, advertisement, notice or any other matter within twenty feet of any permanent sign, poster or notice regulating traffic.”

The above bye-laws have been approved by His Excellency the Governor.
