No. 293. THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS LAW.

CAP. 252 AND LAWS 11 OF 1950 AND 31 OF 1951.

BYE-LAWS MADE BY THE COUNCIL OF THE MUNICIPAL CORPORATION OF NICOSIA.

In exercise of the powers vested in them by the Municipal Corporations Law, and otherwise, the Council of the Municipal Corporation of Nicosia hereby make the following bye-laws :—

Cap. 252.
11 of 1950.
31 of 1951.

1. These bye-laws may be cited as the Nicosia Municipal (Amendment) Bye-laws, 1952, and shall be read as one with the Nicosia Municipal Bye-laws, 1938 to 1949 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Bye-laws"), and the principal Bye-laws and these bye-laws may together be cited as the Nicosia Municipal Bye-laws, 1938 to 1952.

Gazettes:
Suppl. No. 3:
20.7.1938
to 8.12.1949

2. Sub-paragraph (d) of paragraph (1) of bye-law 57 of the principal Bye-laws is hereby deleted and the following sub-paragraph substituted therefor :—

"(d) sell bread only in loaves weighing one kilogram or one-half kilogram ;"

3. The principal Bye-laws are hereby amended by the addition immediately after bye-law 64 of the following Chapter and bye-law :—

"Chapter 5A.—Prophylactic Stations for Venereal Diseases.

64A.—(1) No person shall keep or operate a prophylactic station for venereal diseases without first obtaining a licence from the Council:

Provided that no licence shall be granted save with the prior approval of the Director of Medical and Health Services.

(2) Every licence under this bye-law shall expire on the 31st December next following the date of issue but, provided that the prophylactic station to which it relates has operated to the satisfaction of the Director of Medical and Health Services, such licence may be renewed from year to year.

(3) A licence may be cancelled at any time by the Council if on good cause shown the Council considers advisable so to do.

(4) The Director of Medical and Health Services or his representatives or the medical officer of health or any other person duly authorized in that behalf in writing by the Mayor, shall have the right to enter and inspect at any time any premises used as a prophylactic station in order to ascertain whether it is properly worked and maintained in the interests of health."

4. Bye-law 172 of the principal Bye-laws is hereby deleted and the following bye-law substituted therefor:—

" 172.—There shall be paid to the treasurer by every person obtaining a licence to use any building, tent or place as a theatre a fee to be determined by the Council in each case according to the following scales:—

- (a) for theatres having an entrance fee, a fee not exceeding £100 for every year or part thereof;
- (b) for theatres not having an entrance fee—
 - (i) for every day, a fee not exceeding £30;
 - (ii) for every week, a fee not exceeding £100;
 - (iii) for every month, a fee not exceeding £200;
 - (iv) for every year, a fee not exceeding £800."

5. Bye-law 173 of the principal Bye-laws is hereby deleted and the following bye-law substituted therefor:—

" 173.—(1)—(a) The Council shall charge a duty (hereinafter in this Chapter and in the Third Schedule hereto called 'entertainment duty') on all payments made for admission to any public entertainment.

(b) The entertainment duty shall be at the rates set out in the Third Schedule hereto and shall be payable by the manager.

(c) The entertainment duty shall be levied by perforating with a perforating press the tickets of admission which shall be presented by the manager to the Council prior to their sale for the purpose of being so perforated:

Provided that the Council may at any time, by public notification, prescribe another manner in which the entertainment duty shall be levied and thereafter the entertainment duty shall be levied in the manner set out in such public notification.

(2)—(a) No person shall be admitted to any public entertainment except against a ticket, even though such ticket is issued free of charge:

Provided that no entertainment duty shall be levied or paid on any ticket issued free of charge.

(b) Every such ticket shall be cut into two by the ticket collector upon entry of the ticket holder to the public entertainment and thereafter half of the ticket shall be returned by the ticket collector to the ticket holder who will keep the same until the public entertainment is over, and the remaining half shall be kept by the manager in a special wooden or iron box, properly locked, which shall be placed at the entrance of the public entertainment.

(c) The Council or a representative of the Council duly authorized in that behalf in writing by the Mayor shall have the right to open and examine the contents of the aforesaid box for the purposes of ascertaining or checking the number of the persons who had been admitted to the public entertainment.

(3) The correct price of each ticket shall be stated thereon.

(4)—(a) The Council may exempt from the payment of the entertainment duty or remit the whole or any part of the entertainment duty in the case of any public entertainment the takings whereof either wholly or in part are devoted to philanthropic or charitable purposes.

(b) Any person wishing to be granted any exemption or reduction under paragraph (a) of this bye-law, in respect of any public entertainment, shall submit an application in writing to the Council prior to the sale of any ticket for such public entertainment.

(c) Any person who does not submit such application in writing prior to selling tickets or whose application has been refused by the Council shall pay the entertainment duty in full in accordance with the rates set out in the Third Schedule hereto.

(5) The Council or a representative of the Council duly authorized in that behalf in writing by the Mayor shall have the right to enter any public entertainment and examine any ticket whether at the cash desk, with the ticket collectors, orderlies, ticket holders, purchasers or otherwise in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Chapter and of the Third Schedule hereto are being complied with.

(6) Any person who—

(i) sells or offers for sale any ticket the price of which has not been stated at all or the price of which is stated incorrectly or sells or offers for sale any ticket at a price higher than that stated on the ticket ; or

(ii) sells any ticket (not being a free ticket) which is not marked in such a manner as to denote that the entertainment duty has been paid ; or

(iii) in any way whatever hinders the Council or its representative from entering any public entertainment or examining the tickets or renders such examination nugatory by not returning half of the ticket to the ticket holder upon entry in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 2 (b) of this bye-law ; or

(iv) admits any person or allows the admission of any person to any public entertainment without a ticket or against a ticket which is not in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter ; or

(v) otherwise contravenes the provisions of this Chapter, shall be guilty of an offence against these bye-laws.

(7) For the purposes of this Chapter 'manager' means the person in whose name the licence for a public entertainment is granted or any person under whose supervision, care or management, the public entertainment is carried out or the person who is the owner or occupier of the land or building in or on which the public entertainment takes place :

Provided that if the licence for public entertainment is granted in the name of two or more persons each of them shall be severally and jointly responsible for the carrying out of the provisions of this Chapter.

6. Paragraph (1) of the Third Schedule to the principal Bye-laws is hereby deleted and the following paragraph substituted therefor :—

	Duty
	s. p.
“ (1) On each ticket for one person, the total price of which does not exceed 1 shilling	- 2 ”

7. The principal Bye-laws are hereby amended by the insertion therein immediately after bye-law 176 of the following bye-law :—

“ 177. From and after the 1st day of November, 1952, no person shall use in any street any vehicle the wheels of which are not protected by a rubber cover.”

The above bye-laws have been approved by His Excellency the Governor.
