No. 616.

THE TOBACCO LAW.

CAP. 170 AND LAWS 41 OF 1953 AND 33 OF 1954.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER SECTIONS 24 AND 70.

In exercise of the powers vested in him by sections 24 and 70 of the Tobacco Law, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to make the following regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Tobacco (Giving of Security, etc.) Regulations, 1954.

2.—(1) The security to be given by a manufacturer under section 24 of the Tobacco Law shall be in the form of a cash deposit, or a guarantee of a bank, and shall be in accordance with the following scale:—

- (a) in the case of a person manufacturing tobacco for the first time £100
- (b) in any other case, where the quantity of tobacco issued for local consumption in the preceding year—
 - (i) does not exceed 4,000 okes £150
 - (ii) exceeds 4,000, and does not exceed 8,000 okes £200
 - (iii) exceeds 8,000 okes £250

(2) For the purposes of this regulation "the preceding year" means the year ending on the preceding 31st day of December:

Provided that if a factory licence has not been in force for a full year, the quantity of tobacco issued for local consumption during the preceding year shall be deemed to be a quantity bearing the same proportion to the quantity actually issued for local consumption as the whole year bears to the time during which the factory licence was in force.

3.—(1) In cases where a factory licence expires and a new licence is not issued, any knives, machinery, apparatus or special tools used in the manufacture of tobacco in such factory shall, as the Comptroller may direct, be kept therein or removed to other place of security, and shall be kept in either case in a secure room or compartment under Customs seal and shall not be moved or interfered with, except by the authority of the Comptroller, until such time as a new licence is obtained.

(2) Any person who omits or fails to comply with the provisions of this regulation shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds.

Made this 16th day of October, 1954.

By Command of His Excellency the Governor,

A. S. ALDRIDGE,

Clerk of the Executive Council.
