No. 198.

THE INTOXICATING LIQUOR (MANUFACTURE) LICENSING LAWS, 1950 AND 1954.

REGULATIONS MADE UNDER SECTION 40 (1) (g).

In exercise of the powers vested in him by section 40 (1) (g) of the Intoxicating Liquor (Manufacture) Licensing Laws, 1950 and 1954, His Excellency the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, has been pleased to make the following regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Intoxicating Liquor (Manufacture) (Industrial Methylated Spirits) Regulations, 1955.

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“approved” or “authorised” means respectively, approved or authorised by the Comptroller;

“authorised user” means a person authorised to receive industrial methylated spirits or duty-free spirit for use by him;

“industrial methylated spirit” means spirit commonly known as industrial spirit, the proportions in which the spirits and substances are mixed being as follows:—

spirits 100 parts by weight.

diethyl phthalate (C₁₂H₁₄O₄) .. 2½ parts by weight;

“perfumery” means a compound of industrial methylated spirit and fragrant essences, essential oils or other scented material.

3. Where, in the case of any art or manufacture carried on by any person in which the use of spirits is required, it is proved to the satisfaction of the Comptroller that the use of mineralized methylated spirits is unsuitable or detrimental, the Comptroller may, if he thinks fit and subject to such conditions as he sees fit to impose, authorise that person to receive, and permit the delivery from the premises of any manufacturer of intoxicating liquor, industrial methylated spirit, or spirits for use in that art or manufacture without payment of any duty.

4. No person shall supply any industrial methylated spirit or duty-free spirit to any other person unless the supplier has first received a requisition in the approved form, filled up and signed by such person, and bearing a certificate by the proper officer that such person is authorised to receive such industrial methylated spirit or duty-free spirit.

5. An authorised user shall be required to furnish the Comptroller with security for the performance of his obligations under these Regulations in
