" CHAPTER 5.—Pork and Meat Market.

27. The shops, stalls, and places designated by the Council within each Municipal Market as Pork and Meat Markets and bearing the inscription 'Pork and Meat Market' are hereby established as Pork and Meat Markets.

28. The Pork and Meat Markets shall be under the control of an inspector appointed by the Council.

29. The inspector shall keep the Pork and Meat Markets open daily from sunrise till such time (not being later than sunset) as there is fresh pork and meat on sale therein, and may allow it to be open at such other hours as the inspector, subject to the Mayor's directions, may think fit.

30. No person shall sell the carcass of any pig or any fresh pork or fresh meat except at a Pork and Meat Market.

31.—(1) Any fresh pork or fresh meat sold outside a Pork and Meat Market may be seized by the inspector or any other person authorized in writing by the Mayor and destroyed or otherwise disposed of as the Mayor may direct in writing.

(2) For the purpose of this bye-law and bye-law 30, any person whose ordinary occupation is to sell pork or meat shall be deemed to sell any pork or meat found in his possession until he proves the contrary.

31A. Nothing in this Chapter contained shall apply to any person selling fresh meat and pork outside a Pork and Meat Market in premises specially approved by the Council."

4. The principal Bye-laws are hereby amended by the insertion therein, immediately after bye-law 40 of the following Chapter and bye-law :—

" Chapter 6A.—Open Air Markets for Perishable Goods.

40A.—(1) The Council may from time to time by public notification fix places for the purpose of holding at least once a week Open Air Markets for Perishable Goods.

(2) The Open Air Markets for Perishable Goods shall be under the control of an inspector appointed by the Mayor in writing.

(3) The place or places where and the manner in which perishable goods are to be sold in the Open Air Markets for Perishable Goods shall be appointed and regulated by the inspector.

(4) The fees prescribed by bye-law 14 shall be paid to the inspector by the owner or the person in charge of perishable goods brought into or on sale in the Open Air Markets for Perishable Goods.

(5) Any perishable goods sold in contravention of this bye-law may be seized by the inspector or any other person authorized in writing by the Mayor, and disposed of as the Mayor may direct.

(6) The inspector or any other person authorized in writing by the Mayor, may at any time enter any places believed by him to contain perishable goods in contravention of this bye-law."
