EXPLANATORY NOTE.

(This note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport)

This Order places a prohibition on the import into Cyprus of all notes which are, or have at any time been, legal tender in the Colony. Under Clause 3 (a) of the Exchange Control (Import and Export) Order, 1953, an exemption to the above prohibition is made where a traveller imports into the Colony, on his person or in his luggage, notes which are, or have at any time been, legal tender in the Colony or in the United Kingdom, provided that the total value of such notes, in whatever combination they are imported, does not exceed £10 sterling. This Order imposes no new restriction but merely removes any doubt that there may have been as to the validity of a restriction which has long been applied in practice.
