2. Bye-law 75 (1) of the principal Bye-laws is hereby amended as follows :—

(i) by the deletion of items (b) and (d) and the figures and words appearing opposite such items and the substitution therefor of the following new items and figures :—

“(b) for every ox .. .. . 100 mils.
(d) for every swine .. .. . 50 mils.”

(ii) by the insertion immediately after item (h) thereof of the following new items, words and figures :—

“(i) for every ass .. .. . 50 mils.
(j) for every sheep and goat .. .. . 30 mils.”

3. Bye-law 162 (2) of the principal Bye-laws is hereby amended by the deletion therefrom of the words “ not exceeding one month ” (line 3).

4. Bye-law 163 of the principal Bye-laws is hereby amended as follows :—

(i) By the insertion immediately after sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (1) thereof of the following sub-paragraph :—

“(d) For a period of one year a fee, to be determined by the Board in each case, not exceeding £50,000 mils.”

(ii) By the insertion, immediately after paragraph (2) thereof, of the following paragraphs :—

“(3) The Board shall charge a duty (hereinafter in this Chapter and in the Third Schedule hereto called ‘Entertainment Duty’) on all tickets sold or issued free of charge for admission to any public entertainment.

(4) The entertainment duty shall be at the rates set out in the Third Schedule hereto and shall be payable by the manager.

(5) The entertainment duty shall be levied by special stamps to be printed by the Board and to be sold by the Board to the managers.

(6) No person shall be admitted to any public entertainment except against a ticket, even though such ticket is issued free of charge.

(7) An inspection coupon shall be attached to each ticket and such coupon shall be detached from the ticket by the ticket collector upon entry of the ticket holder to the public entertainment. The ticket itself shall be kept by the ticket holder until the public entertainment is over.

(8) The correct price of each ticket shall be stated thereon.

(9) Any person selling or issuing tickets shall affix on each ticket prior to its sale or issue to any person, the appropriate stamp in accordance with the rates set out in the Third Schedule hereto, and such person shall cancel any stamp so affixed by him, dating, sealing or otherwise making it impossible to re-use such stamp.

(10) The Board may grant any reduction of or exemption from the entertainment duty, upon application in writing by the organisers of any of the following entertainments :—

- (a) Any sports competition ;
- (b) Any public entertainment the proceeds of which is destined for religious or charitable purposes ;
- (c) Any public entertainment of a wholly educational or scientific character ;
- (d) Any public entertainment which is provided for partly educational or partly scientific purposes by a society, institution or committee not conducted or established for profit.

(11) The Board or a representative of the Board duly authorized in that behalf by the Chairman of the Board in writing shall have the right to enter any public entertainment and examine any ticket whether at the cash desk with the ticket collectors, orderlies, purchasers or otherwise in order to ascertain whether the provisions of this Bye-law and of the Third Schedule hereto are being complied with.

(12) Any person who—

- (a) sells or offers for sale any ticket the price of which has not been stated at all or the price of which is stated incorrectly or sells or offers for sale any ticket at a price higher than that stated on the ticket ;
- (b) sells or issues any ticket not bearing a stamp or bearing a stamp of insufficient value ;
- (c) in any way whatever hinders the Board or its representative from entering any public entertainment or examining the tickets or renders such examination nugatory by not returning the ticket to the purchaser or person to whom it has been issued ;
- (d) admits any person or allows the admission of any person to any public entertainment without a ticket or against a ticket which is not in accordance with the provisions of this section of the bye-laws ;
- (e) takes off from any ticket a cancelled stamp for the purpose of re-using such stamp or affixes a stamp that has already been used once to any ticket ; or
- (f) otherwise contravenes the provisions of this section of the bye-laws, shall be guilty of an offence against the bye-laws.

(13) For the purposes of this bye-law 'manager' means the person in whose name the licence for a public entertainment is granted or any person under whose supervision, care or management, the public entertainment is carried out, or the person who is the owner or occupier of the building, tent or place in or on which the public entertainment takes place :

Provided that if the licence for public entertainment is granted in the name of two or more persons each of them shall be severally and jointly responsible for the carrying out of the provisions of this bye-law."

5. The principal Bye-laws are hereby amended by the insertion therein at the end thereof of the following Third Schedule :—

“THIRD SCHEDULE.

ENTERTAINMENT DUTY.

(Bye-law 163 (3).)

- (a) On each ticket of the value not exceeding 50 mils, a stamp of five mils should be affixed.
- (b) On each ticket of the value between 50 mils and 75 mils, a stamp of 10 mils should be affixed.
- (c) On each ticket of the value between 75 mils and 100 mils a stamp of 15 mils should be affixed.
- (d) For every ticket the value of which exceeds 100 mils a stamp of 20 mils should be affixed.”

The above bye-laws have been approved by the Administrative Secretary.

THE POLICE LAW.

CAP. 265 AND LAWS 24 OF 1953, 31 OF 1954, 21 OF 1955, 39 OF 1955
AND 48 OF 1955.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR UNDER SECTION 58.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by section 58 of the Police Law, I, the Commissioner of Police, with the approval of the Governor, do hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (United Kingdom Unit) Regulations, 1955, and shall be read in conjunction with the Police Regulations, 1947 to 1955 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Regulations”).

2. The principal Regulations shall apply to police officers who are members of the Unit of the Force known as “the United Kingdom Unit” (hereinafter referred to as “the Unit”) subject to the provisions of these Regulations.

3. Where it is alleged that any member of the Unit has committed any disciplinary offence under the principal Regulations the matter shall be reported to the Officer-in-charge of the Unit.

4. Upon the receipt of any report referred to in regulation 3 of these Regulations, the Officer-in-charge of the Unit shall investigate the matter with a view to ascertaining whether or not there is a prima facie case to support a charge for the commission of a disciplinary offence.

5. In carrying out any investigation as aforesaid the Officer-in-charge of the Unit shall obtain statements from such witnesses as he deems necessary and shall also ask the accused police officer whether he wishes to make any statement concerning the allegation.

6. The Officer-in-charge of the Unit may appoint a suitable member of the Unit, acting under his directions, to assist him in carrying out an investigation as aforesaid.
