THE POLICE LAW.

CAP. 265 AND LAWS 24 OF 1953, 31 OF 1954, 21 OF 1955, 39 OF 1955
AND 48 OF 1955.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE COMMISSIONER OF POLICE WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE GOVERNOR UNDER SECTION 58.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by section 58 of the Police Law, I, the Commissioner of Police, with the approval of the Governor, do hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Police (United Kingdom Unit) Regulations, 1955, and shall be read in conjunction with the Police Regulations, 1947 to 1955 (hereinafter referred to as “the principal Regulations”).

2. The principal Regulations shall apply to police officers who are members of the Unit of the Force known as “the United Kingdom Unit” (hereinafter referred to as “the Unit”) subject to the provisions of these Regulations.

3. Where it is alleged that any member of the Unit has committed any disciplinary offence under the principal Regulations the matter shall be reported to the Officer-in-charge of the Unit.

4. Upon the receipt of any report referred to in regulation 3 of these Regulations, the Officer-in-charge of the Unit shall investigate the matter with a view to ascertaining whether or not there is a prima facie case to support a charge for the commission of a disciplinary offence.

5. In carrying out any investigation as aforesaid the Officer-in-charge of the Unit shall obtain statements from such witnesses as he deems necessary and shall also ask the accused police officer whether he wishes to make any statement concerning the allegation.

6. The Officer-in-charge of the Unit may appoint a suitable member of the Unit, acting under his directions, to assist him in carrying out an investigation as aforesaid.

7. If, as the result of the investigation carried out, the Officer-in-charge of the Unit is of the opinion that there is a prima facie case to support a charge, he shall prepare the charge and arrange for the case to be enquired into and tried by the Commissioner.

8. At the trial of any member of the Unit by the Commissioner the Officer-in-charge of the Unit may either act as presenting officer himself or he may appoint a member of the Unit to act as such. The accused police officer shall be entitled to have a friend to assist him with his defence.

9. The trial of any member of the Unit by the Commissioner shall be conducted, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the regulations in force for the time being in the United Kingdom for the trial of police officers for disciplinary offences.

10. The decision of the Commissioner to impose any punishment in any case tried by him under these Regulations is subject to appeal to the Governor within seven days from the date of the communication of the decision of the Commissioner to the accused police officer and the decision of the Governor shall be final:

Provided that where the punishment imposed is one of dismissal, requirement to resign or reduction in rate of pay, such punishment shall not be carried out without the confirmation thereof by the Governor, and the police officer concerned shall have the right to appeal to the Secretary of State against the imposition of such punishment within fourteen days of the communication to him of the Governor's confirmation of the punishment.

Made with the approval of the Governor this 28th day of December, 1955.

G. H. ROBINS,
Commissioner of Police.
