its general purport).*

The above Schedule lists the goods which may not be imported from the United Kingdom or any British Colony except under specific import licence. Goods not included in the Schedule may be so imported by a registered importer under the above Open General Licence, but the Licence does not authorise the import of goods the import of which is prohibited under the Customs Management Laws or any other legislation, and nothing in the Licence shall be construed as exempting anyone from complying with any legislation in force for the time being.
