No. 1105.

THE ARMY ACT, 1881.
(44 & 45 Vict. c. 58.)

PROCLAMATION UNDER SECTION 189.

JOHN HARDING,
Governor.

Whereas by sub-section (2) of section 189 of the Army Act of the United Kingdom, as continued in force by Act of Parliament for the time being, it is provided, inter alia, that the Governor of a Colony in which any of Her Majesty's Forces are serving may declare at any time that, by reason of the imminence of active service, it is necessary for the public service that the Forces in the Colony should be temporarily subject to the Army Act, as if they were on active service :

And whereas by a Proclamation dated the 26th day of November, 1955, and published in the Gazette of that date, it was declared that by reason of the imminence of active service it was necessary for the public service that Her Majesty's Forces in the Colony subject to the Army Act should be temporarily subject to the said Army Act as if they were on active service for a period of three months from the date of the aforesaid declaration :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of February, 1956, and published in the Gazette of that date, the aforesaid declaration was renewed for another period of three months from the 26th day of February, 1956 :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1956, and published in the Gazette of the 25th day of May, 1956, it was declared that by reason of the imminence of active service it was necessary for the public service that Her Majesty's Forces in the Colony subject to the Army Act should be temporarily subject to the said Army Act as if they were on active service for a period of three months from the 26th day of May, 1956 :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of August, 1956, and published in the Gazette of the 24th day of August, 1956, the last-mentioned declaration was renewed for another period of three months from the 26th day of August, 1956 :

And whereas the last-mentioned period expires on the 25th day of November, 1956 :

And whereas I am satisfied that, by reason of the imminence of active service, it is necessary for the public service that the forces in the Colony should be temporarily subject to the Army Act, as if they were on active service :

And whereas Her Majesty's Secretary of State for the Colonies has given his consent to the making of a declaration as aforesaid :

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the said section 189 of the Army Act, and of every other power and authority enabling me in that behalf, I, the Governor, do hereby declare and proclaim that by reason of the imminence of active service it is necessary for the public service that Her Majesty's forces in the Colony subject to the Army Act should be temporarily subject to the said Army Act as if they were on active service for the period commencing on the 26th day of November, 1956, and ending on the 31st day of December, 1956.

Given under my hand and the Public Seal of the Colony at Nicosia, this 16th day of November, 1956.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

THE AIR FORCE ACT.

(7 & 8 Geo. 5.)

PROCLAMATION UNDER SECTION 189.

JOHN HARDING,
Governor.

Whereas by sub-section (2) of section 189 of the Air Force Act of the United Kingdom, as continued in force by Act of Parliament for the time being, it is provided, inter alia, that the Governor of a Colony in which any part of Her Majesty's air force is serving may declare at any time that, by reason of the imminence of active service, it is necessary for the public service that the force in the Colony should be temporarily subject to the Air Force Act, as if it was on active service :

And whereas by a Proclamation dated the 3rd day of December, 1955, and published in the Gazette of that date, it was declared that by reason of the imminence of active service it was necessary for the public service that Her Majesty's air force in the Colony subject to the Air Force Act should be temporarily subject to the said Air Force Act as if it was on active service for a period of three months from the date of the aforesaid declaration :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of February, 1956, and published in the Gazette of that date, the said declaration was renewed for another period of three months from the 3rd day of March, 1956 :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of May, 1956, and published in the Gazette of the 25th day of May, 1956, it was declared that by reason of the imminence of active service it was necessary for the public service that Her Majesty's air force in the Colony subject to the Air Force Act should be temporarily subject to the said Air Force Act as if it was on active service for a period of three months from the 3rd day of June, 1956 :

And whereas by a further Proclamation dated the 23rd day of August, 1956, and published in the Gazette of the 24th day of August, 1956, the last-mentioned declaration was renewed for another period of three months from the 3rd day of September, 1956 :

And whereas the last-mentioned period expires on the 2nd day of December, 1956 :
