(3) When two or more references are pending before the Tribunal whether by the same or different claimants against the same Acquiring Authority, and the subjects of such reference involve a common question of law or fact of such importance in proportion to the rest of the matters involved in such references as to render it desirable that the references should be consolidated, the President or the Tribunal may, on the application of any interested party, or of his or its own motion, make an order that the references shall be heard together.

(4) An order for consolidation may be made with respect to some only of the matters to which the notices of reference relate.

Default of appearance.

15. On the hearing of an appeal or application against a determination or assessment the appellant or applicant shall not be entitled to rely upon any grounds not stated in his notice of reference or statement of case or application unless the President or the Tribunal thinks it just in all the circumstances, and on such terms as to costs or adjournment or otherwise as he or it may think fit, to allow such additional grounds to be put forward as may appear to the President or the Tribunal to be material.

Appellant limited to grounds of appeal.

16.—(1) Evidence before a Tribunal may be given orally or, if the parties to the proceedings consent or the President or the Tribunal so orders, by affidavit, but the Tribunal may at any stage of the proceedings make an order requiring the personal attendance of any deponent for examination and cross-examination.

If it appears to the Tribunal that any party to proceedings before the Tribunal has failed to send a copy of any document required under these Rules to be sent to any other party or to the registrar, the Tribunal may direct that a copy of the document shall be sent as may be necessary and that the further hearing of the proceedings be adjourned, and may in any such case require the party at fault to pay any additional costs occasioned thereby.

23.—(1) A party to any proceedings before the Tribunal shall be entitled to apply to the Lands Officer in charge of the District within which the land, which is the subject of the proceedings, is situate for information concerning sales, registered at the Land Registry Office concerned, of comparable property in the neighbourhood of such land, and such information (including full particulars of property and sale price) shall be given to the party applying within 10 days from the date of the application, or within such longer period as may be approved by the President.

If, in the opinion of the Tribunal, the President or such member or members, the decision on the point of law substantially disposes of the proceedings he or they may order that the argument shall be treated as the hearing of the case or may make such other order as may seem just.

(2) Where an amount awarded or value determined by the Tribunal is dependent upon the decision of the Tribunal on a question of law which is in dispute in the proceedings, the Tribunal shall ascertain, and shall state in its decision, the alternative amount or value (if any) which it would have awarded or determined if it had decided otherwise on the question of law.

(3) The registrar shall send copies of the decision to every party who has appeared before the Tribunal.

(4) If any directions are given by the Supreme Court for the amendment of any decision of the Tribunal on which a case has been stated for the opinion of the Supreme Court, the amendment shall be made by the Tribunal accordingly and the registrar shall send copies of the amended decision to all persons to whom copies of the original decision were sent.

(3) In the absence of an agreement signed by the client, advocates as between themselves and their clients shall, subject to any order of the Tribunal, be entitled to charge and shall be allowed the fees prescribed in Appendix B, as are appropriate to the case.

(6) In the absence of an agreement signed by the client, an advocate may not recover against his client a greater amount of costs than the client would have recovered as between party and party if he had been successful.

(7) Every taxation of a bill of costs shall be subject to the same conditions and Rules of Court as regulate the taxation of costs in civil actions, either between party and party or between advocate and client, so far as the same are applicable.

(8) Any party dissatisfied with a taxation of costs by the registrar may, within 10 days of the taxation, serve on any other party interested therein and on the registrar objection in writing specifying the items objected to and the grounds of objection and asking for the taxation to be reviewed by the President in respect of such items.
