

2. No person (including any person enjoying any right over the land whether by virtue of an interest in the land or otherwise) other than a member of Her Majesty's Forces shall enter or be on the land so long as the warning signals are in position.

3. From and after the date of the publication of this Order in the Gazette, no persons (including any person enjoying any right in or over the land whether by virtue of an interest in the land or otherwise) shall erect any building on the land or plant any tree on the land or perform any act on the land, save with a written permit from the Commissioner of the District in which the land is situated.

4. The use of the land by Her Majesty's Forces shall be subject to the condition that there shall be paid by Her Majesty's Government to the person for the time being entitled to occupy the land, compensation for the use and possession thereof and for any damage thereto which, in default of agreement, shall be assessed under the provisions of the Compensation (Defence) Law or in accordance with the provisions relating to compensation in respect of taking possession of land as therein contained.

5. Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Order is liable, under Defence Regulation 94 as set out in the Schedule to the aforesaid Emergency Laws (Transitional Provisions) (Cyprus) Order, 1946, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both such imprisonment and fine.
