2. There shall be substituted for Regulations 52, 53, 53A and 53B of the principal Regulations the following new Regulations:—

"Discharge of firearms, etc. 52. Any person who shall, without lawful authority or lawful excuse, the burden of proof of which shall lie upon him—
(a) discharge any firearm at any person or any group or body of persons, or at any place where persons are, or
(b) throw, cause to explode or ignite, or deposit any bomb or any other explosive or incendiary article, substance or liquid, with intention to cause death or injury to any person or persons, or

Substitution of new Regulations for Regulations 52, 53, 53A and 53B of the principal Regulations.

(c) carry any firearm, shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be sentenced to death.

Possession of firearms, bombs, etc.

52A. Any person who shall, without lawful authority or lawful excuse, the burden of proof of which shall lie upon him—

- (a) throw, cause to explode or ignite, or deposit any bomb or any other explosive or incendiary article, substance or liquid, with intention to cause damage to any property, or
- (b) have in his possession or under his control, or manufacture or assist in manufacturing, any firearm, or
- (c) carry, or have in his possession or under his control, or manufacture or assist in manufacturing, any ammunition or any bomb or grenade, or
- (d) carry, or have in his possession or under his control, or manufacture or assist in manufacturing, any explosive article, substance or liquid, other than ammunition or a bomb or grenade, with intention to cause death or injury to any person or persons or damage to any property, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for life or for such lesser term as the Court may see fit to impose.

Possession, etc., of incendiary or explosive articles.

53. Any person who shall, without lawful authority or lawful excuse, the burden of proof of which shall lie upon him—

- (a) carry, or have in his possession or under his control, or manufacture or assist in manufacturing, any incendiary article, substance or liquid, or
- (b) carry, or have in his possession or under his control, or manufacture or assist in manufacturing, any explosive article, substance or liquid, other than ammunition or a bomb or grenade, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years.

Consorting with terrorists.

53A.—(1) Any person who consorts with or is found in the company of another person who is carrying, or has in his possession or under his control, any firearm, ammunition, bomb or grenade, or any explosive article, substance or liquid, other than ammunition or a bomb or grenade, in contravention of the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52 or sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) or sub-paragraph (d) of Regulation 52A, as the case may be, in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption—

- (i) that he knew that such other person was carrying, or had in his possession or under his control, any such firearm, ammunition, bomb, grenade, or other explosive article, substance or liquid, in contravention of the provisions of the said sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52 or sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) or sub-paragraph (d) of Regulation 52A, as the case may be, and
- (ii) that he intended, or was about, to act, or had recently acted, with such other person in a manner prejudicial to public safety or the maintenance of public order, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for life or for such lesser term as the Court may see fit to impose.

(2) Any person who, without lawful excuse, consorts with or is found in the company of another person who is carrying, or has in his possession or under his control, any firearm, ammunition, bomb or grenade, in contravention of the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52 or sub-paragraph

(b) or sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52A, as the case may be, in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption that he knew that such other person was carrying, or had in his possession or under his control, any such firearm, ammunition, bomb or grenade in contravention of the provisions of the said sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52 or sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52A, as the case may be, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years.

(3) Any person who, without lawful excuse, consorts with or is found in the company of another person who is carrying, or has in his possession or under his control, any explosive article, substance or liquid, other than ammunition or a bomb or grenade, in contravention of the provisions of sub-paragraph (d) of Regulation 52A, in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption that he knew that such other person was carrying, or had in his possession or under his control, such explosive article, substance or liquid, in contravention of the provisions of the said sub-paragraph (d), shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years.

(4) Where in any prosecution for an offence under this Regulation it is established to the satisfaction of a court that the accused person was consorting with, or in the company of, any person who was carrying, or had in his possession or under his control—

- (i) any firearm or ammunition, or any bomb or grenade, or
- (ii) any explosive article, substance or liquid, other than ammunition or a bomb or grenade, it shall be presumed, until the contrary is proved, that such last mentioned person was carrying or had in his possession or under his control such firearm, ammunition, bomb or grenade, or such explosive article, substance or liquid, in contravention of the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of Regulation 52 or sub-paragraph (b) or sub-paragraph (c) or sub-paragraph (d) of Regulation 52A, as the case may be.

Acts likely to assist terrorism.

53B.—(1) If, with intent to further the objects of terrorism, any person does, or attempts or conspires with any other person to do, any act which is designed or likely to give assistance to the operations of terrorists or to impede the operations of the security forces for the suppression of terrorism, or to assist the escape or prevent the arrest or surrender to lawful authority of terrorists, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding ten years.

(2) No prosecution shall be instituted under this Regulation without the previous consent of the Attorney-General or of the Solicitor-General.

(3) In this Regulation—

- 'arms' includes any dangerous weapon;
- 'security forces' includes Her Majesty's Forces and the Cyprus Police Force (which includes members of the Auxiliary Police Force and Special Constabulary);
- 'terrorist' means any person who—

- (a) by the use of any firearm, ammunition or explosives, or of any arms, acts in a manner prejudicial to the public safety; or
- (b) incites any person to the use of any firearm, ammunition or explosives, or of any arms; or

(c) carries or has in his possession or under his control any firearm, ammunition or explosives, without lawful excuse therefor ;
and ' terrorism ' shall have a corresponding meaning."

3. These Regulations shall not have effect in relation to any offence against the principal Regulations, where an information for that offence has been signed before the 4th day of April, 1957, but (subject to that and without prejudice to any legal proceedings under the principal Regulations commenced before such date or to anything done therein) these Regulations shall have effect in relation to such offences committed wholly or partly before that date as they apply in relation to such offences committed after that date.

Made at Nicosia, this 4th day of April, 1957.
