THE EMERGENCY POWERS ORDERS IN COUNCIL,
1939 AND 1956.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE GOVERNOR UNDER SECTION 6.

HUGH FOOT,
Governor,

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 6 of the Emergency Powers Orders in Council, 1939 and 1956, I, the Governor, do hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Emergency Powers (Amendment of the Criminal Code) Regulations, 1958.

2. During the continuance in force of these Regulations, the Criminal Code shall be read and construed as if a colon were substituted for the full stop at the end of section 57 thereof and the following two provisos inserted thereafter:—

"Provided that it shall not be an offence to publish in any newspaper the contents or any part thereof of any document or writing to which paragraph (b) of this section relates where permission in writing has been given for such publication by the Administrative Secretary or by any person authorised by the Administrative Secretary to give such permission:

Provided further that it shall not be an offence to print, sell, expose for sale or transmit through the post in any newspaper any matter in respect of which permission has been given under the first proviso to this section and the possession by any person of any such newspaper containing such matter shall be deemed to be possession by lawful authority."

3. The Emergency Powers (Amendment to the Criminal Code) (No. 2) Regulations, 1957, are hereby revoked.

Gazette :
Supplement
No. 3:
