Provided that the Corporation may, with the approval of the Commissioner, charge and pay out of the Gratuities and Pension Fund to an officer who has been removed from office on grounds of misconduct or inefficiency in the performance of his duty, a pension or gratuity not exceeding the amount of pension or gratuity which might have been granted to such officer if he had not been so removed.

167. Subject to the provisions of these bye-laws, every officer holding a pensionable office in the service of the Corporation who has been in such service for ten years or upwards may be granted on his retirement a pension at the rate of one seven hundred and twentieth of his salary for each complete month of service :

Provided that a pension granted to an officer under these bye-laws shall not exceed two-thirds of the highest salary drawn by him at any time in the course of his service.

168. Every officer otherwise qualified for a pension, who has not completed the minimum period of service qualified for a pension, may be granted on retirement a gratuity not exceeding five times the annual amount of the pension which, if there had been no qualifying period, might have been granted to him under bye-law 167.

Subject to the provisions of these bye-laws, service qualifying for pension or gratuity, as the case may be, shall be the inclusive period between the date on which an officer begins to draw salary from the funds of the Corporation without deduction of any period during which he has been absent on leave.

172. No service other than service in a pensionable office shall be taken into account in computing pensions except that where the service in a pensionable office has been immediately preceded by an unbroken period of service in an appointment other than a pensionable office, or of service paid from funds of the Corporation or of both such services that period, or any part of it, may be taken into account.

173. If an officer holding a pensionable office retire or be removed from the service in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the office of which he belongs, by which greater efficiency and economy can be effected, he may be granted a pension calculated in accordance with bye-law 167 :

Provided, however, that if he has been in the service of the Corporation for less than the qualifying period of ten years, he may be granted a pension calculated in accordance with that regulation as if there had been no qualifying period.

175. Where an officer has been permanently injured—

- (a) in the actual discharge of his duty, and
- (b) without his own default, and
- (c) by some injury specifically attributable to the nature of his duty and his retirement is thereby necessitated or materially accelerated, he may, if he is qualified for a pension under bye-law 166, be granted, in addition to the pension granted to him under that bye-law, an additional pension at the rate of the proportion of his actual salary at the date of his injury appropriate to his case as shown in the following table when his capacity to contribute to his own support is—

Slightly impaired	five sixtieths.
Impaired	ten sixtieths.
Materially impaired	fifteen sixtieths.
Totally destroyed	twenty sixtieths.

Provided that the amount of additional pension shall, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, be reduced to such an extent as the Council shall think reasonable in the following cases :—

- (ii) where the injured officer is at the date of injury within ten years of the age at which he is retired, or
- (iii) where the injury is not the sole cause of retirement, but the retirement is caused partly by age or infirmity not due to injury :

Provided also that the total amount of the pension shall not exceed the maximum two-thirds of the pension to which he would have been entitled by length of service on reaching the age of sixty years.

176.—(1) Any officer to whom a pension is granted under these bye-laws, at his option exercisable as hereinafter provided, may be paid, in lieu of such pension at the rate of three-fourths of such pension together with a gratuity equal to ten times the amount of the reduction so made in the pension.

(2) The option referred to in paragraph (1) of this bye-law shall be exercisable not later than three years after the date on which the office of such officer has been declared pensionable under these bye-laws or not later than three years after the date on which the officer has been appointed to a pensionable office.

177.—(1) Where an officer holding a pensionable office, who is not on probation or agreement, dies while in the service of the Corporation and during the five years preceding his death has continuously held a pensionable office in the service of the Corporation, it shall be lawful for the Council with the approval of the Commissioner to grant to his dependants a gratuity of an amount not exceeding one year's salary.

(2) For the purpose of this bye-law the term " dependants " means such of the members of the family of an officer as were wholly or in part dependent upon the earnings of the officer at the time of his death.

178. No officer shall have an absolute right to compensation for past service or to pension, gratuity or other allowance nor shall anything in these bye-laws contained limit the right of the Council to dismiss, subject to the approval of the Commissioner, where such approval is required, any officer without compensation.

179. No pension, gratuity or other allowance shall be granted to any officer except on his retirement from the service of the Corporation in one of the following cases :—

180. No pension, gratuity or other allowance granted under these bye-laws shall be assignable or transferable or liable to be attached, sequestered or levied upon for or in respect of any debt or claim whatsoever, other than a debt due to the Government of Cyprus or the Corporation.

181. If any officer to whom a pension or other allowance has been granted under these bye-laws is sentenced to a term of imprisonment by any competent Court within Cyprus or outside Cyprus of any crime or offence, then, in every such case, it shall be lawful for the Council with the sanction of the Commissioner to direct that such pension or allowance shall forthwith cease :

Provided always that the pension or allowance shall be restored with retrospective effect in the case of a person who after conviction at any time receives a free pardon ; and

Provided further that where a pension or allowance ceases for the reason aforesaid it shall be lawful for the Council with the approval of the Commissioner to cause all or any part of the moneys to which the pensioner would have been entitled to be applied to the benefit of any wife, child or children of the pensioner, or, after the expiration of his sentence, also to the benefit of the pensioner himself.

182. Subject to the provisions of these bye-laws, the Corporation shall charge and pay out of the Gratuities and Pension Fund gratuities to officers in the service of the Corporation, who are not holding a pensionable office and who have been removed from their office on any ground other than misconduct or inefficiency in the performance of their duties.

183. A gratuity under bye-law 182 shall be at the rate of one-twelfth of the average yearly pay received by an officer during his last four years of service for each completed year of unbroken service immediately prior to his retirement or removal from office :

Provided that no officer shall be entitled to receive any gratuity unless he shall have served for an unbroken period of at least five years immediately preceding the retirement or removal from office.

184. To enable the Council to grant gratuities and pensions under these bye-laws a fund shall be established, to be called the " Gratuities and Pension Fund ", which shall consist of all moneys paid by the Corporation into this Fund as hereinafter provided.

185. The Corporation shall, subject to the provisions of these bye-laws, administer the Gratuities and Pension Fund and shall keep a separate account in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Council with the approval of the Commissioner, of all moneys paid into and out of the said Gratuities and Pension Fund.

186. The Corporation shall in every year charge on and pay out of the revenues of the Corporation a sum of £150 into the Gratuities and Pension Fund :
