No. 950. THE EMERGENCY POWERS ORDERS IN COUNCIL, 1939 AND 1956.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE GOVERNOR UNDER SECTION 6.

HUGH FOOT,
Governor.

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 6 of the Emergency Powers Orders in Council, 1939 and 1956, I, the Governor, do hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) (Amendment) (No. 6) Regulations, 1958, and shall be read as one with the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 5) 1958 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Regulations"), and the principal Regulations and these Regulations may together be cited as the Emergency Powers (Public Safety and Order) Regulations, 1955 to (No. 6) 1958.

warrant.

3.—(1) Any Police Officer or any member of Her Majesty's Naval, Military, or Air Forces, acting in the course of his duties as such, may arrest without warrant—

(a) any person in respect of whom he has reason to believe that there are grounds which would justify the making of a detention order in respect of such person under section 2 of the Detention of Persons Laws, 1955, or under Regulation 6 of these Regulations ;

(b) any person whom he has reasonable grounds for suspecting to have acted or be acting or be about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety or to public order or to have committed or be committing or be about to commit an offence against these Regulations, and such Police Officer or member of Her Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces may take such steps and use such force as may appear to him to be reasonably necessary for effecting such arrest.

(2) Any person so arrested shall be brought as soon as reasonably may be before the police officer for the time being in charge of any police division and such person may, by order of such police officer be lodged in any place or building there to be detained for such period as may be specified in the order not exceeding twenty-eight days.

(3) Any person detained as in this Regulation provided shall be deemed to be in lawful custody during the period of such detention".

4. The Emergency Powers (Arrest and Detention) (Temporary Provisions) Regulations, 1958, are hereby revoked without prejudice to anything done or left undone thereunder.
