AND
THE PORT WORKERS (REGULATION OF EMPLOYMENT)
REGULATIONS, 1952 TO 1960.

OVERTIME WORK AND FEES.

1. In exercise of the powers vested in the Commissioner of Labour by section 4 (a) of the Port Workers (Regulation of Employment) Laws, 1952 to 1960, I hereby prescribe that as from the date of the publication of this Order in the Gazette, overtime at the rates prescribed in the Schedule hereto shall be charged against the employers for the services of officers of the Department of Labour who are detailed and permitted to carry out overtime outside the official hours of the Department of Labour.

35 of 1952
47 of 1954
33 of 1958
5 of 1960.

SCHEDULE.

	Rate per hour
Labour Officer or Assistant Labour Officer	£0.275 mils
Labour Assistant	£0.200 "
Clerical Assistant	£0.200 "

2. The above rates shall be increased by 50 per centum when overtime work is required to be performed at any time on any Sunday or other day appointed by the Governor to be a public holiday.

3. Where the services are rendered for overtime work in respect of two or more employers simultaneously the overtime fee of the officers concerned shall be divided or apportioned between such employers in proportion to the number of port workers employed by each employer respectively.

4. Where overtime work applied for is performed, the minimum charge shall be as for one hour on any day.

5. If cancellation of an application for overtime is, in the opinion of the District Labour Officer, made in sufficient time before the attendance has been applied for to allow of staff being advised and attendance avoided, such cancellation shall be made without charge.

6. If overtime has been applied for and the services of the officers are not actually required and the application for overtime attendance has not been cancelled in sufficient time to prevent attendance of the officers detailed, a charge will be made as for a minimum of one hour and, if not cancelled upon the expiration of one hour from the hour of commencement of overtime work as applied for, until cancellation is made. The charge made shall be for the total number of hours of attendance up to the time of cancellation, subject to any part of an hour following the first hour being charged as for one hour.

Dated this 31st day of May, 1960.

M. SALAHIDDIN,

Acting Commissioner of Labour.
