2. The Principal Law, section 21 (a), is hereby amended by the insertion in line 2 after the words "seed or manure" of the words "or of the loan of money in connection with or for the purposes of cultivation or harvesting".

Amendment of Law 13 of 1914, section 21 (a)

3.—(1) Whenever a society is indebted to an Agricultural Bank, established under the provisions of the Agricultural Bank Law, 1890, or any amendment thereof, in any sum of money unsecured by mortgage of immovable property and such debt is overdue, the Registrar shall, on the written request of the Agricultural Bank concerned, order the society to proceed forthwith to enforce by legal proceedings such outstanding demands, as the Registrar may deem fit, due to the society from a member or a past member thereof, sufficient to satisfy such debt due from the society to the Agricultural Bank, and, in such proceedings, to exercise all rights, privileges and priorities as by Law provided.

Power of Registrar to order a society indebted to an Agricultural Bank to enforce outstanding demands, etc.

(2)—(a) If any society fails to institute legal proceedings in compliance with an order made by the Registrar as in the preceding sub-section provided, the Registrar may order the society to deliver to him forthwith all bonds or documents relating to such outstanding demands due as aforesaid, and, upon delivery thereof, the Registrar shall be entitled to institute legal proceedings on behalf of the society by his name of office for the enforcement of such demands, and, in such proceedings, shall be entitled to exercise all rights, privileges and priorities as might have been exercised by the society.

Power of Registrar when society fails to comply with order.

(b) If any society, although it has instituted legal proceedings in compliance with such order, fails to exercise in such proceedings all or any rights, privileges and priorities, the Registrar shall be entitled to exercise all such rights, privileges and priorities as might have been exercised by the society, and, for this purpose, shall be entitled to take, on behalf of the society by his name of office, all necessary proceedings.

(3) Any order made by the Registrar as in sub-section (2) (a) of this section provided, shall, on application by the Registrar, be enforced by any Civil Court having local jurisdiction in the same manner as an order of such Court.

Enforcement of order.
