A LAW TO CONSOLIDATE AND AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO
ANTIQUITIES.

[31st December, 1935.] 1949 Cap. 43.

1. This Law may be cited as the Antiquities Law. Short title.

2. In this Law— Interpretation.

“ ancient monument ” means—

(a) any object, building or site specified in the First or Second Schedule to this Law ; First Schedule.

(b) any other object, building or site in respect of which the Governor in Council has made an Order under section 6 of this Law, Second Schedule.

and shall include any part of the adjoining land which may be required for the purpose of fencing, covering, or otherwise preserving the monument from injury, as also the means of access to such monument ;

“ antiquity ” means any object, whether movable or immovable or a part of the soil, which has been constructed, shaped, inscribed, erected, excavated or otherwise produced or modified by human agency earlier than the year A.D. 1700, together with any part thereof which has at a later date been added, reconstructed or restored ;

“ Director ” means the Director of Antiquities ;

“ land ” includes land (with the grazing rights, and all water and water rights on, over or under such land), buildings, trees, easements and standing crops ;

“ owner ” includes—

(a) in the case of property in the occupation of any See, Monastery or Church, the Bishop of the Diocese, the governing body of the monastery or the duly constituted committee of management of the church, for the time being, as the case may be ;

(b) in the case of property in the occupation of any Mosque, Tekye or other Moslem religious body or institution, the High Council of Evcaf or other person administering the trusts of the same for the time being, as the case may be.

PART I.

GENERAL.

3. Subject to the provisions of this Law, all antiquities lying undiscovered at the date of the coming into operation Property in antiquities.

of this Law in or upon any land shall be the property of the Government.

Antiquities
accidentally discovered
by unlicensed persons to be delivered to the mukhtar or other authorized person.

4. (1) Any person who accidentally discovers an antiquity whether in or upon his own land or land the property of another person or of the Government without being in possession of a licence to excavate in accordance with section 14 of this Law shall forthwith give notice of his discovery and if portable deliver the antiquity, to the mukhtar of the nearest village or to such other person as the Commissioner of the District may appoint in that behalf or to the Curator of the Cyprus or a District Museum and shall at the same time sufficiently indicate or describe the place where he found it.

(2) The mukhtar or other person authorized to take delivery of the antiquity shall give to the person who delivers it a receipt containing a full description of such antiquity and shall send a duplicate of the receipt to the Director and shall, pending instructions from him, retain the antiquity in safe custody.

(3) Any person who fails to comply with any of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to both, and any antiquity in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be delivered to the Director and the finder shall not be entitled to any payment therefor.

Disposal of
antiquities
discovered.

5. (1) The Director upon receiving notice of the discovery of an antiquity as in section 4 of this Law mentioned shall consider whether such antiquity should be acquired for the Cyprus Museum or for any District Museum and if it appears to him that the antiquity should be so acquired, he shall pay to the finder such sum as appears to him to be the fair market value for the same.

(2) If the Director decides not to acquire the antiquity he may offer it to the Trustees of the British Museum who if they wish to acquire it, may do so on condition that they pay to the finder such sum as appears to the Director to be the fair market price for the same.

(3) If the finder is dissatisfied with the value fixed by the Director, the value of the antiquity shall be fixed by an arbitrator appointed by the Chief Justice and the decision of the arbitrator shall be binding upon both parties.

(4) If neither the Director nor the trustees of the British Museum desire to acquire the antiquity, the Director shall deliver it to the finder and shall give him a permit authorizing him to retain, sell or otherwise dispose of the same either within or without the Colony :

Provided that the finder may, with the permission of the Director, deposit such antiquity among the duplicate antiquities exposed for sale at the Cyprus Museum and the price obtained for it, if sold, shall be paid over to him by the Director without any deduction.

PART II.

ANCIENT MONUMENTS.

6. (1) The Governor in Council may, on the recommendation of the Director, from time to time by Order in the Gazette—

Power to Governor in Council to declare ancient monuments.

(a) declare any object, building or site which he considers to be of public interest by reason of the historic, architectural, traditional, artistic or archæological interest attaching thereto to be an ancient monument and shall at the same time declare whether such monument shall be added to the First or to the Second Schedule to this Law, as the case may be ;

(b) direct that any ancient monument specified in, or added to, either Schedule be transferred to the other Schedule to this Law.

(2) No object, building or site shall be declared an ancient monument unless the Director gives notice in the Gazette of the proposed declaration not less than one month before the making of the Order, and any person whose interests may be prejudicially affected by the proposed declaration may, within the period of one month aforesaid, lodge an objection for consideration by the Governor in Council whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

7. The ancient monuments specified in the First Schedule to this Law together with such other ancient monuments as may from time to time be added thereto shall be the property of the Government.

Ancient monuments in the First Schedule to be the property of the Government.
First Schedule.

z

Owner not to alter character of ancient monuments without permission.
Second Schedule.

8. (1) No person beneficially interested in any ancient monument specified in the Second Schedule to this Law, or in any other ancient monument as may from time to time be added thereto shall make any alterations, additions or repairs affecting its architectural character to such ancient monument or fell any tree growing within the boundaries of the same save in accordance with the terms of a permit in writing from the Director previously obtained.

(2) The Director may, with the approval of the Governor, grant to any person beneficially interested in any ancient monument to which this section applies, such sum as to the Director may seem fit for the purpose of assisting such person in the maintenance, preservation or restoration of such monument.

(3) Any person who is dissatisfied with any term imposed by the Director in any permit issued under this section may, within one month from the date of notification of the decision of the Director, appeal to the Governor in Council whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

(4) Any person who acts in contravention of subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and the ancient monument in respect of which the offence has been committed shall upon conviction vest in the Government.

Compensation for private property declared an ancient monument.

9. Where any object, building or site which is privately owned is declared to be an ancient monument and inserted in the First Schedule to this Law, or where any ancient monument specified in the Second Schedule is added to the First Schedule compensation shall be payable to the owner in the like manner and in accordance with the provisions of the law for the time being in force relating to the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes :

Provided that in assessing any compensation payable for such monument no regard shall be had to its historic, architectural, traditional, artistic or archæological value unless the owner can prove that he paid in good faith a higher price for the monument on account of such value.

Offences.

10. (1) Any person whether beneficially interested in it or not who—

(a) destroys, injures or defaces an ancient monument ;

(b) writes, draws, or carves any writing, drawing or figure on an ancient monument, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to both.

(2) If any animal is found trespassing in or on any ancient monument specified in the First Schedule to this Law or any other ancient monument as may, from time to time, be added thereto under the provisions of this Law, both the owner of the animal and the person, if any, in whose charge it was at the time of the trespass shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds or to both and the Court trying the offence shall, in addition, have power to award such compensation by way of damages as the Court may think fit, within the limits of its powers regarding the award of compensation. <sup>2 of 12/45.</sup>

(3) Any person who places or causes to be placed or who leaves any refuse, rubbish or litter in or on any ancient monument specified in the First Schedule to this Law or any other ancient monument as may, from time to time, be added thereto under the provisions of this Law, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds or to both.

11. (1) The Governor, with a view to ensuring that buildings in the neighbourhood of an ancient monument shall as regards height and style of architecture be in keeping with the character and style of such monument and that the amenities thereof may be preserved, may by notice to be published in the Gazette order that, within such area as may be specified in such notice no building shall be erected, reconstructed or repaired and no tree shall be felled save in accordance with the terms of a permit in writing from the Commissioner previously obtained. Power to Governor to control the erection, etc., of buildings in the neighbourhood of ancient monument.

(2) Before issuing a permit under this section the Commissioner may require the applicant to submit for the consideration of the Commissioner and the Director such plans, sections and drawings as to them may seem fit and the Commissioner in consultation with the Director may require such modifications to be made in the same as will ensure that the building in respect of which the permit is granted will be in keeping with the character and style of any ancient monument.

(3) Any person who is dissatisfied with any term imposed by the Commissioner in any permit issued under this section may, within one month from the date of notification of the decision of the Commissioner, appeal to the Governor whose decision thereon shall be final and conclusive.

(4) Any person who—

- (a) erects, reconstructs or repairs any building contrary to the provisions of subsection (1) of this section ;
- (b) in erecting, reconstructing or repairing any building deviates from the approved plan, section or drawing, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten pounds and in addition to such punishment the Court trying the offence shall order such person to demolish or reconstruct in accordance with the instructions of the Commissioner within such time as may be specified in the order any building in respect of which the offence has been committed ;

Provided that if the person convicted fails or neglects to carry out the order of the Court he shall be liable to a further fine not exceeding five hundred mils for every day during which the default continues and the Commissioner may cause the building to be demolished or reconstructed in such manner as to him may seem fit and the cost of so doing shall be recoverable by the Commissioner from the person convicted as a civil debt.

Compulsory acquisition of land in the proximity of ancient monument.

12. Where the Governor is satisfied that in order to preserve the amenities of an ancient monument it is desirable that no building should be erected upon any land in the proximity of such ancient monument or that any building in the proximity thereof should be demolished, the Governor may direct that such land or building be acquired on payment of such amount by way of compensation as may be agreed upon and in default of agreement the amount of compensation shall be determined in the like manner and in accordance with the law for the time being in force relating to the compulsory acquisition of immovable property :

Provided that in assessing any compensation payable for such land or building no regard shall be had to any artificial rise in the value thereof due to any speculative dealings which may have taken place in regard to such land or buildings after the commencement of this Law.

PART III.

EXCAVATIONS.

13. The Director may carry out excavations for the purpose of discovering antiquities.

Power to Director to excavate.

14. (1) No person shall excavate or cause excavations to be made whether on his own land or elsewhere for the purpose of discovering antiquities without a licence in writing in that behalf first obtained from the Director in accordance with the provisions of this Law.

Licence to excavate.

(2) Any person who—

(a) excavates or attempts to excavate or causes any excavations to be made in contravention of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section ;

(b) knowingly or having reasonable grounds for believing that any antiquities have been excavated in contravention of subsection (1) of this section, purchases, removes or otherwise deals with the same, whether on his own account or on behalf of any other person, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to both and any antiquity in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be delivered to the Director and the finder shall not be entitled to any payment therefor.

15. (1) No licence to excavate shall be granted unless the applicant satisfies the Director that—

Qualifications of applicants for licence.

(a) he is by training and experience competent to carry out excavations in accordance with the most recent scientific methods ;

(b) he is recommended by an archæological society or institution of repute ;

(c) adequate provision has been made for the scientific publication of the results of any previous excavation on which the applicant has been engaged ;

(d) he, or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts is prepared to expend on the proposed excavations a sum of money which in the opinion of the Director is sufficient to obtain satisfactory results ;

- (e) the proposed excavations will not cause any damage or inconvenience to the inhabitants of the place where it is proposed to excavate or to any place dedicated to religion or to any cemetery, school, watercourse, irrigation work, or public road, or that if such damage is likely to be caused, adequate provision has been made for the payment of compensation therefor.

Conditions of licence.

16. (1) Every licence to excavate shall state the period during which it shall remain in force which period shall not exceed two years, and every such licence shall be deemed to be subject to the following conditions :—

- (a) if the land within which the licence is granted is private property, the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall arrange with the owner as to the terms upon which he may enter upon the land for the purpose of excavation :

Provided that if in the opinion of the Governor negotiations for an agreement upon reasonable terms have failed, the Governor may, on behalf and at the cost of the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts acquire the land in whole or in part in accordance with the provisions of section 17 ;

- (b) the holder of the licence shall take all reasonable measures for the preservation of the antiquities discovered by him ;
- (c) at the close of the excavation or at such other times as the Director may appoint, the Director shall select and acquire for the Cyprus Museum without payment any antiquities which are in his opinion required for the scientific complement of the Museum or for the purpose of illustrating the history or art of Cyprus. The Director shall then make a division of the remaining antiquities aiming as far as possible at giving the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts a half share of the result of the excavation :

Provided that—

- (i) in order to facilitate a division, the Director may complete the share of

- the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts by giving him any antiquity the property of the Government which is not required for the Cyprus Museum ;
- (ii) if a division is in the opinion of the Director impracticable, the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall be granted such compensation as the Director, with the approval of the Governor, may determine ;
- (iii) the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall within a reasonable time deposit in the Cyprus Museum any photographs, casts, squeezes or other reproductions of antiquities falling to his share in such division which the Director may require ;
- (d) the holder of the licence shall furnish plans and photographs of his excavations to the Director, and shall, when requested by the Director, furnish him with lists of all the antiquities discovered and any additional information relating thereto which the Director may require ;
- (e) the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall supply the Director with two copies of any preliminary reports relating to his excavations ;
- (f) the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall publish within a period of two years after the completion of his excavations (unless this period be extended by the Director) an adequate scientific report on the results of his excavations, and shall supply the Director with two copies of such report and of any other publications relating thereto ;
- (g) in case of breach of any of the conditions upon which the licence is granted, the Director, with the approval of the Governor, may suspend or cancel such licence, and where the licence is cancelled the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts shall forfeit his claim to any share of the antiquities excavated by him ;

- (h) in the event of cancellation of the licence or upon failure of the holder of the licence or the person, society or institution on whose behalf he acts to comply with the provisions of condition (f), the Director shall be entitled to publish a report on the results of the excavations and for this purpose may make use of any preliminary reports supplied by holder of the licence ;
- (i) any other conditions which the Governor in Council may by Regulations from time to time prescribe.

(2) Upon the expiration of the period for which a licence is granted the Director may renew such licence for a further period not exceeding two years, either upon the same terms or upon such other terms as he may think fit.

Compulsory acquisition of land in connection with excavations.

17. (1) Where the Director has decided to carry out any excavations or where the Governor is otherwise satisfied that any land should be compulsorily acquired for purposes of excavations and the owner of the land in which the proposed excavations are intended to be made does not consent, the Governor may direct that the land or the right to excavate therein be acquired on payment of such amount by way of compensation as may be agreed upon and in default of agreement the Governor may order proceedings for the acquisition of the land and for determining the amount of compensation to be paid therefor in accordance with the provisions of the law for the time being in force relating to the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes.

(2) Where during any excavations or at any time after the completion thereof the Governor is satisfied that any land upon which such excavations are being, or have been, carried out should be compulsorily acquired, the Governor may direct that the land be acquired on payment of such amount by way of compensation as may be agreed upon, and in default of agreement the Governor may order proceedings for the acquisition of the land and for determining the amount of compensation to be paid therefor in accordance with the provisions of any law for the time being in force relating to the compulsory acquisition of land for public purposes.

(3) In assessing any compensation payable for any land acquired under subsection (1) or (2) of this section no regard shall be had to its historic or archæological value.

18. (1) Save with the permission in writing of the Director, no person shall, during any excavations destroy, damage, remove or conceal any antiquities or any human, animal or other remains discovered during such excavations.

Control over antiquities, etc.,
discovered
during excavations.
3 of 12/45.

(2) Any person who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds or to both.

PART IV.

MUSEUMS AND ADVISORY BODIES.

19. All the antiquities and objects of art which are now contained in the Cyprus Museum at Nicosia and all antiquities which may hereafter be acquired by the Government under the provisions of this Law, shall be held by the Government for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Colony.

Antiquities,
etc., to be held for the benefit of the inhabitants of the Colony.

20. In addition to the Cyprus Museum at Nicosia the Governor may establish District Museums in any District in the Colony.

District
Museums.

21. The Cyprus Museum and all District Museums established under the provisions of section 20 of this Law shall be under the control and management of the Director.

Control and management of Museums.

22. (1) There shall be established a Board to be called "the Antiquities Advisory Board" which shall consist of the Director as Chairman and such persons not exceeding eight as the Governor may appoint in addition to the Chairman.

Antiquities
Advisory Board.

(2) Every member of the Board other than the Chairman shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of his appointment.

(3) The Board shall meet at such place and times as the Chairman may appoint provided that a meeting shall be held at least once in every half-year.

(4) The Board shall deliberate and advise upon matters relating to or connected with ancient monuments and antiquities.

District
Antiquities
Committees.

23. (1) There shall be established in every District a District Antiquities Committee consisting of the Commissioner of the District as Chairman and of such other persons not exceeding six as may be appointed by the Governor :

Provided that the Antiquities Advisory Board shall be the District Antiquities Committee for Nicosia District.

(2) Every member of such Committee other than the Commissioner shall hold office for a period of three years from the date of his appointment.

(3) The Committee shall meet at such place and times as the Chairman may appoint provided that a meeting shall be held at least once in every half-year.

(4) The Committee shall deliberate and advise upon matters relating to or connected with ancient monuments and antiquities found within the district and may make such report thereon to the Director as they think fit.

PART V.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Exemption for churches mosques, etc.

24. Notwithstanding anything in this Law contained no church, mosque or site used for religious observances, being the property of a religious community or the Evcaf Department, shall be inserted in the First Schedule or acquired under any provision of this Law.

Payment of compensation by instalments.

25. Any compensation payable under the provisions of section 9 or 12 of this Law may at the option of the Governor be paid by yearly instalments not exceeding five, provided that where payment is made by instalments interest at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be payable on outstanding instalments.

Dealers to be licensed.

26. No person shall deal in antiquities unless he is the holder of a dealer's licence granted by the Director.

Export of
antiquities.

27. (1) No person shall export any antiquity from the Colony without a licence to export first obtained from the Director.

(2) Any person who shall export or attempt to export or who shall aid, counsel or procure any other person to export or attempt to export any antiquity without such a licence shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to imprisonment not exceeding one year or to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to both and any antiquity the property of such person in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited.

28. The Director may prohibit the export of any antiquity the retention of which in the Colony he considers desirable in the public interest :

Power to the Director to prohibit export of antiquities.

Provided that he shall not prohibit the export of—

- (a) any antiquity imported into the Colony upon which import duty is proved to his satisfaction to have been paid ;
- (b) any antiquity used for or devoted to a religious purpose which it is proved to his satisfaction is being exported by a religious or ecclesiastical body for a religious or ecclesiastical purpose.

29. The Director may, with the approval of the Governor, dispose of by sale, exchange or otherwise any antiquity the property of the Government which is not required for the Cyprus Museum or any District Museum.

Sale, etc., of antiquities not required for Museums. 4 of 12/45.

30. The Governor may make loans for antiquities belonging to the Government, to the governing bodies of museums or learned societies without the Colony :

Loans of antiquities to museums, etc., outside Colony.

Provided that the party to whom the loan is made shall at their own expense make adequate provision for the preservation, insurance and return of such antiquities.

31. (1) The Governor may appoint a Director and such experts, officers, agents and other persons as may be necessary for the proper carrying out of the objects of this Law.

Appointment of experts, etc.

(2) The Director may delegate the exercise of any power vested in him under this Law to any other person.

32. Every person in possession of an antiquity shall, at the request of the Director, at all reasonable times, permit the same to be inspected and studied by the Director at the place where such antiquity is kept or deposited and shall give him all reasonable facilities for making drawings, photographs or reproductions thereof by making casts or by any other means :

Inspection of antiquities by Director.

Provided that no drawings, photographs or reproductions shall be sold without the consent of the person in possession of such antiquity.

List of antiquities to be furnished to Director.

33. (1) Every person in possession of antiquities at the date of the coming into operation of this Law shall, within a period of four months from that date, furnish the Director with a list describing such antiquities to the best of his ability.

(2) Notwithstanding that any antiquity specified in a list furnished to the Director under the provisions of this Law is not contained in a list furnished to the Museum Committee or the Administrative Secretary under the provisions of the Laws hereby repealed or has been obtained or acquired in contravention of any provision of such Laws, the Government shall have no claim to such antiquity and no proceedings shall be taken by the Government against any person in respect thereof.

(3) After the expiration of the period of four months as aforesaid any person having in his possession any antiquity which has not been contained in any list furnished under this section shall, unless he satisfies the Court that he has acquired the same lawfully under the conditions of this Law, be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds and any antiquity in respect of which the offence has been committed shall be forfeited.

(4) Any person who disposes of any antiquity contained in a list furnished by him under the provisions of this section shall, within fourteen days, notify the Director of such disposal. The notification shall contain a description of the antiquity and the name and address of the person to whom it has been disposed.

Disposal of forfeitures.

34. All forfeitures under this Law shall be delivered to the Director who may utilize them for any of the purposes of this Law or for any other purpose in the interests of archæology.

Regulations.

35. The Governor in Council may make Regulations to be published in the Gazette for all or any of the following purposes, that is to say—

- (a) for the grant of licences to export antiquities ;
- (b) prescribing the manner in which applications for a licence to excavate shall be made ;

- (c) prescribing conditions to be contained in a licence to excavate in addition to those specified in section 16 of this Law ;
- (d) regulating the days and hours upon which the Cyprus Museum or any District Museum or any ancient monument specified in the First Schedule shall be open to the public and prescribing whether admission shall be free of charge or upon the payment of a fee and fixing such fee (if any) ;
- (e) establishing a fund (to be called "The Antiquities Fund") into which the moneys standing to the credit of the Cyprus Antiquities Fund established under the Antiquities Laws, 1905 to 1928 and all legacies, donations and subscriptions shall be paid and prescribing the objects for which and the manner in which the moneys in such Fund may be expended ;
- (f) generally for the better carrying out of the provisions of this Law.

36. Nothing in this Law shall affect the validity of any licence to excavate granted under the provisions of the Laws hereby repealed* and every such licence shall subject to the provisions of the Law under which it was granted be valid and effective for the unexpired term thereof as if this Law had not been enacted.

Saving of licences.
