THE SUPPLIES AND SERVICES (TRANSITIONAL POWERS)
ACT, 1945.

ORDER MADE BY THE GOVERNOR.

A. B. WRIGHT,
Governor.

In exercise of the powers vested in me by the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945, as extended to the Colony by the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) (Colonies, etc.) Order in Council, 1946, I, the Governor, do hereby order as follows :—

Gazettes:
Suppl. No. 3:
30.12.1943
23. 2.1946
7.11.1947
28.10.1948.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Defence (Importation of Goods) (Amendment) Regulations, 1953, and shall be read as one with the Defence (Importation of Goods) Regulations, 1943 to 1948 (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Regulations") and the principal Regulations and these Regulations may together be cited as the Defence (Importation of Goods) Regulations, 1943 to 1953.

2. Regulation 2 of the principal Regulations shall be varied to read and to have effect as follows :—

" 2.—(1) (a) Notwithstanding anything in any Law or other public instrument contained, the importation into the Colony of any goods whatsoever is prohibited save under a written licence of the Colonial Secretary (which term shall include any officer duly authorized to act on his behalf) and subject to such terms and conditions (including the price at which such goods shall be purchased from abroad or sold in the Colony, the method of payment for such goods abroad or in the Colony, the manner in which such goods may be sold or disposed of in the Colony and the contingencies on which such licence shall cease to be valid) as may be specified therein.

(b) Any licence granted under these regulations may be modified or revoked at any time by the Colonial Secretary.

(2) The Colonial Secretary may prescribe forms to be used for the purposes of these regulations.

(3) For the purpose of these regulations any goods brought within the territorial waters of the Colony in any ship or aircraft whether for transshipment or in transit or for home consumption, shall be deemed to have been imported into the Colony".

3. Regulation 5 of the principal Regulations shall be varied to read and to have effect as follows :—

" 5. The Colonial Secretary may order that any goods imported into the Colony in contravention of the provisions of these regulations (and whether any person has been prosecuted therefor or not) shall be forfeited and thereupon such goods shall be forfeited to the Crown".

Made at Nicosia, this 28th day of November, 1953.
